

PRESS RELEASE

MAY 27, 2020 Equi-Health Canada and Equi-First Aid USA (A division of Equi-Health Canada) are excited to announce their new scholarship program.

Scholarships will be awarded on the basis of experience and effort, with a focus on bringing in exceptional individuals who may not otherwise have been able to afford the tuition. The company wants individuals to be able to enroll based on background and performance, not financial hardship.

There will be a total of 15 x 50% scholarships awarded to highly qualified individuals looking to join the team of Equine Health and Emergency First Aid instructors. Applications will open June 1, 2020 at 6:00 am MST and close at 11:59 June 30. Recipients will be announced by July 15, 2020 for fall training programs.

Equi-Health Canada and Equi-First Aid USA has been offering equine emergency first aid training programs to individuals for more than 12 years.
