

Joan Macartney is a Senior Dressage judge (FEI4*r) both with Equestrian Canada and US Equestrian where she judges primarily throughout Canada, the Americas and Australia.

A highlight of her background has been her international work which has involved travelling and judging in a variety of countries - South/Central America, South Africa, Eastern Europe are a few areas where she has judged and presented clinics. Working with youth and assisting in their development is always a priority.

Having retired from a lengthy career in post-secondary education, Joan has become increasingly involved with the dressage community particularly in an educational role, presenting judges clinics, etc. Her riding and competition experience provides Joan with a true appreciation of the challenges in presenting a harmonious ride and achieving success in the dressage arena.
